

The Shipyards is a world-class mixed-use development on the North Vancouver waterfront. It has an unparalleled public place that completes a series of interconnected plazas, transit routes, and Vancouver Art Gallery recreational spaces. The site is named after the Wallace Shipyards, which date back to the first world war.

Founded in 1931, the Vancouver Art Gallery is recognized as one of the most respected and inpires visual arts institutions in Canada and is goal to strengthening ties between artists and diverse communities throughout the City of Vancouver, the Province of British Columbia and beyond. The Vancouver Art Gallery Is a charitable not-forprofit organization supported by its members, individual donors, corporate funders, foundations, the City of Vancouver, the Province of British Columbia through the BC Arts Council and the Canada

Council for the Arts.

FlyOver was conceived by Vancouver entrepreneurs Stephen Geddes and Andrew Strang, who wanted to bring a new tourist attraction to downtown Vancouver. They were inspired by the Soarin' Over California ride located at Disneyland and Epcot.

If you are on a time-sensitive schedule or are concerned about standing for longer periods of time, we highly recommend planning ahead and purchasing Fast-Lane Tickets in advance.
